Martha's Vineyard Bank Charitable Foundation to Award $20,000 in Community Impact Grants on Martha's Vineyard and in Falmouth

Edgartown, MA – Martha's Vineyard Bank Charitable Foundation invites the community to submit nominations for non-profit organizations that made a significant impact on Martha's Vineyard or in Falmouth in 2021. $20,000 in total grants will be awarded, with Martha's Vineyard and Falmouth each having two $5,000 grant recipients.

Members of the community may nominate online now through February 11th followed by a community-voting period March 7th through April 8th.

Nominated non-profits must be a 501c3 and follow the Martha's Vineyard Bank Charitable Foundation's giving guidelines.

A Community Impact Grant recognizes a non-profit's impact and is used to assist the advancement of efforts to help our neighbors and friends. 2022 marks the third year Community Impact Grants will be awarded to nonprofit organizations serving Martha's Vineyard and Falmouth.
